Digital Scriptorium Survey

The results are in! After a few months of collecting and analyzing our data, we are pleased to announce the results of the Digital Scriptorium Survey.

Key facts and figures:

- 230 participants overall; 127 "complete" surveys
- DS users most often look for specific manuscripts and art / art methods
- Overwhelmingly (79.9%), users rank the ability to see images of manuscripts the most important aspect of Digital Scriptorium

We have also carefully taken your comments into consideration, and are thrilled that so many of you took the time to respond more thoroughly with suggestions, feedback, and notes on specific services.

"For those of us who can't hop over to Europe every time we'd like to, this is an important resource to help keep our research interests alive and moving forward...."

"Would like to see some intermediate stage between the very small locating thumbnail and even the lowest of your three resolution choices..."

"...I often discover something of interest, and take care to leave myself plenty of time to follow up threads of interest..."
